Hizi Koyke In 'Butterfly' Role

An opera star whose name has become synonymous with Cho-Cho san in Puccini's "Madame Butterfly", Hizi Koyke, will appear in that role when the San Carlo Opera Company presents the tragic opera in a matinee presentation on Saturday, March, 25, in Toronto, at the Toronto Odeon Theatre.

This will be the only performance of "Madame Butterfly" to be presented by this Company in Toronto this season and it will be one of Miss Koyke's last engagements before she leaves for Japan.

Her last appearance in Canada, it is believed, is when she sang the same titled role in Vancouver, some years before the Second World War.

Tokyo-born Hizi Koyke came to the United States primarily to study at Columbia University in New York and had planned a teaching career, but her own love of singing and music plus the inspiration of Mme. Tamaki Miura, the most well-known for her "Butterfly" role in the 1920's, led her to an operatic career.

She eventually succeeded Mme. Miura in the 1930's and has appeared every season with the San Carlo Company except during the war years. When she made her first operatic appearance two promising young tenors also made their debut. They were James Melton and Nelson Eddy.

The talented mezzo soprano, although most noted for the Puccini role, has a wide repertoire, and is considering the appearance in a number of operatic roles when she performs in Japan.

THE WEEKLY HABIT

By TOYO TAKATA

On a Survey for a magazine article two years ago which included photographing classroom interiors, we had occasion to visit one of Toronto's public schools located in an old and congested district adjoining the downtown section, with a sizable Japanese enrolment. Not only did this school contain a large number of Nisei and Sansei students, it constituted a small-ry version of the United Nations with its range of races and national origins.

The reason for our brief return to the primary institute of knowledge inoculations was to get an idea of how the Nisei and Sansei pupils were faring. We met a kindly and co-operative principal who guided us to the various classrooms. He told us that there was at least one Japanese student in every room with the exception of one, and that was the class for the hard-of-hearing.

He was loud in praise of the scholastic achievements of those students and in several rooms he would point this or that Nisei student and told us how well they did. He informed us that with exceptions, most of them were near the top in class ranking.

We were curious about their classroom and general school behaviour. Again, he commended them. They did not make trouble, got along with other students, and they obeyed and co-operated with the teachers. In his six years at the particular school, he told us, he had punished only one Japanese.

Frankly, the exemplary conduct of the Nisei student strikes a sour note with us. Their record of classroom deportment according to the teachers and the good old report card, excellent. But, here's the rub. These are the same students that [illegible] the holy terrors of the [illegible]-town schoolmarm.

Undoubtedly, discipline was [illegible] in the interior centres with unqualified and untrained teachers (that is according to normal standards), and allowances must [illegible] such, but that does [illegible] explain the devil-to-[illegible]metamorphosis. There [illegible] that much of a [illegible] furthermore, that [illegible] a light on why [illegible] such difference between [illegible] behaviour and that [illegible].

Going back to the pre-evacuation [illegible] school-days, [illegible] of those who [illegible] struggle through [illegible] schools and con[illegible] their meek con[illegible] regular school, [illegible] did not at[illegible] school and we are [illegible], we often [illegible] acquaintances gloat [illegible] about their [illegible] exploits. They brought home A's in deportment from regular schools.

Here, we have two sets of demeanours, one, honeycombed with sweetness and restraint, this conduct was to be used in the regular public school, or in company of non-Japanese and the other, in marked contrast, was the more lively and uninhibited poise which they adopted in company of their own kind.

Nor do the Nisei restrict their dual complex to their school-days. They carry it with them beyond graduation into the business and social aura. Among their own kind they act normally, without undue frigidity, but place them in a mixed group, they don a cloak of stiffness and severe propriety as if their feeling and personality are shackled. At work, they don't complain even if their kicking is justified (small wonder employers love them), and they probably do their griping at home. At school, they never say "no" to their teacher and will go out of the way for fellow students, at the same time at home, they probably hesitate to go to the corner store for their mother.

Perhaps we are being too harsh here, but it is to illustrate the point that many of us possess a form of a split personality, a modified Jekyll-Hyde complex. Among our own kind, our true personality comes out, among others, we're careful to show our cleaner cheek.

This does not mean all of us can be painted with the same brush, there are different shades, and some have completely washed off or even avoided this complex. And the youngsters of today are not as marked as the older ones.

The root of this dual personality, it seems to us, is that we suffer from an acute case of race-consciousness. It boils down to the fact that we are too well aware of our physical difference from the majority that we tread gingerly in majority company. Lest we offend, lest we misbehave, lest we make a wrong impression,—these incessantly harp on our inner mind.

By this, we do make a good impression, but at the same time, restraint based on race-conscious stunts or retards our social advancement. We attempt to atone for our physical difference by being overly careful otherwise. Some of us go to the extreme of disavowing anything and everything of our racial background and put on that "Lost Boundaries" attitude.

Life and living is difficult enough without wearing a mask or hiding and restraining our real personality.

Returning to those still in school, we'd like to see the Nisels and Sanseis free from racial in-

Bar Japanese Return, Demand Skeena Indians

VICTORIA, B. C. — Indians living in the Skeena River district on March 8 protested the return of the Japanese Canadian fishermen to northern B. C. waters. They petitioned Lands Minister Kenney to keep the Japanese from "our inherited livelihood grounds."

The petition said that the Japanese return would endanger the livelihood of their people.

About twenty Japanese Canadian families were recently reported to have returned to the Skeena River district.

Negro Lawyer Chosen City Solicitor By Windsor Council

WINDSOR. — Believed to be the first Negro to fill a senior municipal post, James E. Watson, 38, was appointed the city solicitor by the Windsor Council earlier this week. He was the assistant city solicitor since 1947.

The board of control recommended his appointment last week, and was approved on March 7 by the council.

Mr. Watson, who was born in Windsor, was educated at the University of Toronto and Osgoode Hall Law School in Toronto. He was a pilot officer in the RCAF during the Second World War.

American Girls Tire Him, Japanese Better

TOKYO, — A 38-year-old Wilmington Delaware insurance salesman recently wrote to Gen. McArthur and the Tokyo newspaper Mainichi to find a suitable Japanese wife who is "attractive, good, sensible, and affectionate".

J. Warner Klund said that Japanese girls are more spiritual than "materialistic" American girls who tire him. He claims to have learned this through correspondence courses with metaphysics schools. He has never known a Japanese girl but wants one for a wife.

The newspaper Mainichi which printed his letter, reported that it has received three letters from interested women and that one candidate showed up in person.

Kawakita Still Awaits Trial On His Appeal

SAN FRANCISCO. — Tomoya Kawakita, 29, U. S.-born Nisei, convicted of treason charges in September, 1948, and sentenced to death, is still awaiting trial of his appeal which is next expected for several months, it was reported last week.

Kawakita was convicted on the charge of brutality to American prisoners of war in a Japanese prison camp during the war. He is being held in the Los Angeles county jail.

Japanese Victims In Montreal Fire

Of the three Japanese casualties in the destructive Montreal fire that gutted a section of the Montreal Chinatown last week, the body of Peter Uyeda, 45, formerly of Vancouver has been recovered. Mike Koga, 40, was reported as being in the General Hospital with a fractured spine and numerous cuts and bruises.

Teruo Machida, at the time of this writing, is still missing and believed to be dead. It is thought that several bodies are buried under the debris of what was once the Lotus Tea Garden and the Chang Yung Cafe, and have yet to be recovered.

The work of hunting the ruins for the victims was slow and dangerous because of thick sheets of ice and the possibility of collapsing walls.

Five are known dead, 30 have been treated and more than 100 were made homeless.

Many thousands of dollars have been pledged and collected to aid the victims of the disastrous fire.

House Approves Statehood For Hawaii But Rough Time Expected In Senate

WASHINGTON, D. C. — By more than a two-to-one majority, the House of Representatives on March 7, approved the admittance of Hawaii as a state, however stiff opposition was expected when the question reached the Senate for consideration.

This was the second such measure to be passed by the House recently as last week, they approved by a very narrow margin, the granting of statehood to Alaska.

Opposition to the admittance of Hawaii will be based on the distance from the mainland and without saying so in precise words, on racial grounds. As in the House of Representatives, opponents are expected to be mainly Senators from the southern states. Large proportion of its population is of Asiatic background and almost one third of Hawaiian population are of Japanese ancestry.

Back in 1947, the House passed a similar bill granting Statehood to Hawaii, but was stymied by the Senate.

However, the JACL-ADC hailed the support for statehood as a "vote of confidence in the people of the islands." In support of the measure, many representatives stood up to stress the loyalty of the Hawaiian Japanese and cited their war record.

Woman Educator To Visit Toronto

SYRACUSE, N. Y. — Mrs. Yuriko Moriya, graduate of U. B. C., now a leading educator in Japan, together with Dr. Takeko Yoshida, an outstanding Japanese woman chemist, will arrive on March 13, and will take a four weeks special course at Syracuse University.

The two hope to visit Toronto during the Easter holidays. Mrs. Moriya, who is the daughter of Rev. Mizuno, former pastor at the Japanese United Church in Steveston, B. C., seeks to renew friendships here.

帰郷 大佛次郎

觸手

遊園地でパークとなへられてゐるのはマライ半島の都會には、どこにもある。中華民國の京劇、新劇だの、マライ人の芝居、映畫劇場、ダンスホールなどが、圍ひを設けて入場券を摑つて入る敷地の中に一かたまりにかたまつてゐて、晝間の炎熱が遠ざかつてから、市民が涼みがてら入つて樂しむ場所となつてゐる。シンガポールの町に電球はいちじるしく不足して來てゐたが、一歩、このパークに入ると、驚くほど明るい。戰爭はどこに在るのかと思ふくらゐに不夜城の灯のかたまりと、浮き浮きした騒音に迎へられる。

このシンガポールの「大世界」は、規模も、無論半島隨一であつた。しかし、高野左衛子がいつものやうにりゅうとした夏姿で、自動車から降り、宵闇にすそにちらほらする白足袋を、見る目に印象づけて、こゝのパークに入つたのは、映畫を見るためでもなく、ホールに人を待たせてゐるのでもなかつた。

やはり、この内にある小さい床店だが、フランスものの香水や粉白粉、アメリカの石けんなど、今は町には皆無になつてゐる贅澤品をれいれいしく陳列して高値で賣つてゐはコティの化粧品など買ふこともあつたが、近頃はもつぱら、ドイツのバイエルの藥で殘つてゐるのを物色してゐた。

ドイツが數年間孤立してゐた上に敗北したので、藥は新らしく輸入されることはない筈であつた。しかし、華僑の世界の不思議さは、賴んでおくと、數日後には必ず、左衛子の姿を見ると、その品物を默つて飾り棚のガラス板の上に出してくれた。軍の徵用で姿を消したダイヤモンドが、筋道を辿り代價をおしまないと確實に手に入るのと同じことであつた。そして、左衛子のこの藥の用途は、風變りの方法で、そのダイヤモンドと關係があつた。これはピラミッドや、オクタンなどの粉末の中に、左衛子が集めたダイヤモンドが上手にかくされてもとのやうに封をして、どこまでも藥の瓶のやうに見せ、日本に歸國する海軍士官や報道班員の信頼出來る者の手に渡されるのだつた。

「妹の持藥なんです。日本で手に入らなくなつて困つてゐるんですから、お歸りになつたら、書留小包で結構ですから、とどけてやつて頂けないでせうか。」

青年たちはよろこんで、この美貌の女將に對して騎士の役目をつとめてくれた。

「いいともマダム。」

軍人には税關の檢査もなか[illegible]にポケットにしのばせることも出來た。

左衛子の用意は、やがて、戰爭が日本の敗戰で了ると判斷したからであつた。一般人の一向に知らずにゐることを聽き取る耳があつた。それとは見せず、いつも艶麗に、店に來る人、出て行く人を送り迎へしてゐた。他人の運命には、彼女は冷酷であつた。

賠償要求問題の經過報告（二）

全加市協から要求者宛の手紙內容

要求總額と賠償額との比較割合

晩香坡にいるコーペラチヴ・コミテーの辯護士からごく最近得た報告によると、コーペラチヴ・コミテーに辯護を依頼している約千三百名の要求者の個人的な要求に對する賠償（會社關係の分を除く）は九ヶ月前に比して約十五万弗以上増加するだろうと見積られているが、これは多くの好い「解決」が、さ又多くの「特別賠償」をコミショナーから得たことを示すものである。

その眞正なる數字の內容は

▲要求者の見積つた公正なる市價の總額（要求提出に際して基礎としたもの）は、調査會の時に辯護士の提議を要求者が是認して、多すぎる額を減じ、また調査條件の範圍外と見られて除外された項目を取去つて大体四百四十八萬八千弗である。（アルバタのペーチェア辯護士扱分はこの中に含まれていない。この數字の中にはカストデアンの賣却處分價格も加えてある）

▲右の要求に關連するカストデアンの賣却處分財産（土地家屋及道具）は約百六十六万三千弗である

▲そこで、要求者の見積つた市價からカストデアンの賣却値段を差引いた差額たる正味の賠償要求額は約二百八十二万五千弗である

▲この正味の要求額に對して要求者は、多分八十四萬弗（三〇パーセント）を回收できるであろう

▲そこで、コーペラチヴ・コミテーに辯護を依賴している要求者が受取る總額は（カストデアンの賣却値段と賠償額を加えて）約二百五十万四千弗（要求者の見積つた評價額の五五・七八パーセント）になるであろう

▲辯護士の報告によると、右の割合は州別にしてみても餘り差異はない。例えば要求者の大多數が居住していて要求評價の四分の三を占めるビーシー州とオンタリオ州では賣却値段とばい償額を含めた回收額の割合はビーシー州の五七・四一パーセントに對しオンタリオは五六・〇三パーセントである。最もよい回收が出來るのは歸還兵土地局扱いの農地、自動車、漁網、漁船という順序である。晩香坡市の財産に就ては、賣却値段と賠償額を合計すると、要求額の五五・九六パーセントになつて、有らゆる財産の平均よりも少し割合がよい事になる

全加賠償要求者に急告（下）

——トロント損害賠償要求者委員會から——

◇手紙發送で支障起る

右の手紙を全國要求者へ送付すべく、市協幹部と協衡を重ねたが不調に終つたので、委員會から全國要求者に送付すべく要求者のリスト借用方をコーペラチヴ・コミテーに申込んだが貸して貰えなかつた。ついでコーペラチヴ・コミテー、市協、トロント要求者委員會の三者合同會議を經て、二月十二日要求者大會を開き今後の運動は政治方面に重きを置く事に贊同を得て實行方法一切は委員に一任と決議された。そこでこれらのことを報告し、今後の運動について一般要求者と聯絡を圖るべく二月廿四日の最後の合同會議にはかつたが協調點を見る能わず、茲に新聞紙上に公開報告するの止むなきに至つた。故に要求者各位の隔意なき意見をうけたまわりたい

記者の附記

○二月廿四日の會議は、トロント要求者委員會の人が全加市協の是認を經て參加したコーペラチヴ・コミテーの第二回目の會議である。トロント要求者委員會はこれを「最後の合同會議」と呼ぶのか知らないが、コーペラチヴ・コミテーの會議は今後も開かれるであろう

○此の二月廿四日の會議はその大部分が、今後の對策協議に當てられ「協同して行動する」ことが滿場一致で可決された。その後で要求者委員會の日高邦夫氏から十三ポイントからなる要求者への手紙の草案を提示して之をコーペラチヴ・コミテーから發送して貰いたいと要求した。その中には次の事も書いてあつた

△要求總額六百萬弗に對し賠償は九十二万五千弗と豫想されるが、諸君はこの額に滿足するか？

△コミショナーの提議を一時は受諾したもの〻、現在これを受諾する用意がないならその理由を書いて貰いたい

△四十日間に亘る無益な交渉を行つたのち、全加市協から此の事に就て協力を得ることが出來なかつたことを報告しなければならなくなつた

△コーペラチヴ・コミテーに要求する協合吾々の委員會を全要求者の委員會として支持して、吾々を代表として認めてくれるか？

△公衆運動の計畫（アイ）の項「市協チャプターを通して夫々の地方當局などに働きかけて運動する」

○コーペラチヴ・コミテーでは、これより先き全加市協から要求者に發する手紙の草案を檢討してこれを是認していたのであるが、トロント要求者委員會からの手紙は「無責任な」「道理に背く」「倫理にもとる」もの（想像上の數字を以てして要求者の意見を求めたり、全加市協を非難しておいて其の支部を働らかせようとし、又協同して行動する事を決議したばかりだのに夫れと相反する事をしようとするものであること等を指す）という理由で、その申出でを拒否し、要求者リスト貸與も拒絶した

○トロント地方要求者數は二百餘名で、一月十五日の大會には四十名、二月十二日の大會には廿六名が出席したことは既報の通り

英代表、對日理事會で攻撃

【東京發】日本の財閥を解体したと稱する連合國總司令部は日本の銀行機構は今なお財閥のラインに沿つて運營されているという攻撃に會つて、新たに再吟味する必要に迫られている。すなわち對日理事會席上英國代表ダブリュ・アール・ホッジソン中佐は二、三日前、日本の八銀行は日本全國の八〇パーセントの金融的ビズネスをコントロールしていると訴へたが米代表のダブリュ・シーボルト議長は之を取上げなかつた。次回對日理事會には英代表は再びこれを正式に提出する事になるが、總司令部では先般あいまいな統計ではあるが日本の有力銀行七四のうち十銀行が全國の金融事務の四分の三を取扱つている事實を發表している。この報告の裏面には日本銀行組織の根本的改革の斷行は日本の經濟的機構を極度に微力にするだろうという憂いのため、有力な財閥銀行の改組を除くほか斷念するほかなくなつたということを如實に示すものである。英代表が今回「財閥存續あり」という非難を持ち出しているので、總司令部としては何等かの解答を持たねばならないであろうといわれる

日系漁者復歸問題

【プリンスルパート發】いよいよ漁期を目前に控えた日けい漁者たちはどしどしと八年ぶりでスキーナ河に集まり來つつある。一キャナリーには二十家族の日けい人がすでに居り、まだ來るらしいとの事であり、彼等は家庭道具や食糧品の買出しで忙しい。キャナリー側では多くを語る事をさけているが、日けい漁者は土人漁者よりも優秀だと述べているのに對し、土人漁者たちは生活をおびやかされる恐れがあると日けい漁者の復歸を嫌つていると「日けい漁者、北方沿岸で反對に直面する」と晩市英字紙は大々的に報じている。晩市の漁業者當局の發表によるとビーシー州内日系漁者の數と漁船數は次の通り

△一九四九年―漁者數一一九名、漁船數一九一

△一九五〇年二月末現在―漁者數一二四名、漁船數二〇四(白土人漁者二千名)

太平洋同盟にオタワ態度表明

【オタワ發】ピアソン外相は七日の議會でドリュー保守黨首の質問に答えて「カナダは今のところ太平洋同盟條約に參加する意志はない」と政府の意向を明らかにすると共にカナダ政府の中共政權承認に就いてまだハッキリした決定に達していないと述べた。ピアソン外相の太平洋同盟に關する應答の內容は次の通り

カナダ政府が目下のところ太平洋同盟に反對を表明する理由は、現在米國、英國並にインド各國が太平洋の安全保障と相互援助を保證する條約に參加し得ないといつている際、あえて之を行うのは無效であり賢明でないと思うからである

米上院議員ノーランド氏は先週上院で太平洋同盟案を支持する演說を行つたが、氏の提唱する極東同盟はニュージーランド、比島、日本、台灣及びハワイを含め、米、加、印度など有力國家によつて太平洋の安全保障を確保すると同時に共産主義の擴大をチェックしようというのである

ON THE JAPANESE DIET MEMBERS

By Special Correspondent

Part 3

In the delegation of Japanese parliamentarians, 51-year old Mr. Inejiro Asanuma was perhaps physically, the heaviest and biggest of all. He wasn't fat, but heavy-set with a mien slightly suggestive of that British cabinet minister, Mr. Ernest Bevin. Furthermore, his well-clipped moustache and a tie predominated with red colour stood him out as handsome in a rugged sort of way.

He frequently took notes and he, like Mr. Imamura, copied notes from a Japanese-American journal at Frank Fudemoto's. At the latter's place, he also drank Scotch whiskey like an expert. So it seems he is a lover of the good things of life, fine liquor and food; and Kay Shimizu told me that "he kept staring at me at the press conference."

I was sitting next to him at luncheon and asked him if Communism had any hold on the Japanese people. He related that it was negligible and there was no fear of Japan ever turning Communist although under the new constitution, the Japanese government has to recognize them within its midst. Mr. Asanuma is a member of the steering committee of the Social Democrat party representing Tokyo for the 5th term in the House of Representatives.

Mr. Tatsuro Sakurauchi at 64, was the oldest member in the delegation and, in spite of his age, he seemed to be a tall Japanese. He also appeared to be the quiet sort who frequently smiled at me from a distance. To break the ice and have conversation with him, I brought to his attention that his name had been misspelt in the press release of the Dept. of External Affairs. As a result most of the newspapers had his name as Tatsuo Sakirauchi, mistakes both in his first and last names. Representing Tokyo, he is a chairman of the Finance Committee of the Democrats in the House of Councillors. He is a former member of the House of Representatives for two terms.

One of the smallest members was Mr. Saburo Shiikuma, 54, who thought that Ottawa's weather was somewhat reminiscent of Hokkaido which he represents for the 3rd term in the House of Representatives. He is a member of the steering committee of the Democrats and a former parliamentary Vice-Minister of Communications.

During the buffet supper a girl from the Capitol Press Service brought a batch of photographs which the members of the delegation had previously ordered. They were pictures of members taken on their arrival with various government officials and included a [illegible] were also those taken early [illegible] the day, and the [illegible] was [illegible] to take orders for them. So I was the dishpan for the girl and Mr. Shiikuma who seemed eager always to buy them. However, I interpreted to him that if he would just place the order they would be sent to him later in Washington.

Humble Mr. Tokujiro Kanamori, 63, of Tokyo, a chief librarian of the National Diet Library, marvelled at the intricate, hand-carved panellings of our Parliament's circular Gothic library. At the buffet supper, he seemed quite hungry and when asked if he missed nihon-shoku, he said he didn't and it makes no difference to him and that he could enjoy yoshoku every day. He is a former Minister of State.

Although he was the only member from whom I didn't receive a calling card, I thought Mr. Hideuki Kodo was the most cheerful with his big ready smile and a hearty handshake. It is no doubt that he is the hail-fellow-well-met type of the lot. He is a 47-year old Secretary-General in the House of Councillors from Shimane prefecture.

Slim, dapper and tallish Mr. Makoto Oike, in spite of his 51 years of age, certainly appeared to be the youngest of the group. Hailing from Nagano prefecture, he is a secretary-general of the House of Representatives. As befits his position, he seems to have been concerned with administrative details of the Canadian parliamentary procedure, for he frequently plied for information from government experts during the instructional session.

Small, scholarly and bespectacled Mr. Seiichi Shima was actually the youngest member of the group at 35. He was the one who asked me about dual citizenship of Japanese Canadians. At the close of the meeting with Prime Minister St. Laurent, he was one of the two members who produced an autograph book for the prime minister's signature. From Toyama prefecture, he is a Chief Liaison Officer in the House of Representatives.

hibitions even if they sass their teachers and get into scrapes once in a while. Kids should be bubbling and high-spirited and should act in a manner befitting their nature and should indulge in prankish escapades. We're not looking for little Napoleons, miscreants and cases next-door to a detention school, but we do feel they should not govern their conduct by their racial consciousness.

Some weeks ago, the Negro president of Howard College in Washington, D. C., Dr. Mordecai Johnson, in an address to a brotherhood rally, stated that Negroes and Jews were too minority conscious. We broaden that statement.

Plans For Third Annual Nisei Open Tourney Formed, Invitations Sent To Other Centres

Representatives of the JCCA, Metropolitan and St. FX Badminton clubs met recently to form plans for the Third Annual Nisei Open Shuttle Tourney. Date for the affair was set for April 21-29, lasting a full week.

Jack Oki was elected to the chairmanship, [illegible] Toyama as secretary-treasurer, and tourney management [illegible] be handled by Tats Harada and assistant Johnny Miura. The draw committee will be composed of Oki, Mi Akiyama who will also be head referee, Anthony Fujimoto, and [illegible] Matsu[illegible]. Ken Sugamori will be dance chairman and Matt Matsui will take charge of publicity.

Invitations will be sent to all centres where Niseis play the sport including Montreal, Hamilton, London and Kitchener. The events will remain the same as the previous year with men's, ladies, and mixed doubles. A suggestion to include singles was discussed but, time being too short this year, the event may be made official next year. Fees are still $1.50 for one event, $2 for two, and 75c an event for students.

FEATHER BANTER: The unexpected strong showing of the Montreal shuttlers raised a few local eyebrows and the committee would like to see them in the tourney. Former Torontonian Mas Toyota has a good chance of taking home some cups according to oddsmakers. . . JCCA prexy Roy Shin is all set for the annual London-Kitchener-Hamilton Invitational match to be held during the Easter weekend. Invitations will be forthcoming. . . In the recently held JCCA Jr. vs. St. Clements "C's" match, the Jrs. lost 16-8. The girls show that they could do better with more experience, losing all their matches. . . The All Nations "A" team who considered themselves out of the championships, gets another chance as they learned that all four teams in the Inter-Church loop ended up in a tie and that a playoff would be held to determine the champs.

Students Club Meeting

The University of Toronto Nisei Students Club will hold their last meeting for the season at the University Settlement House, 23 Grange Rd., on March 11 from 7:45 p.m.

We Wuz Robbed Department: two happenings in recent fistic bouts:

In Vancouver, officials gave the nod to a Yakima boxer named Umemoto over local boy Len Kupchak. This didn't meet with the approval of the audience and there were mutterings of annoyance.

Andy Lytle of the Vancouver Sun thought the judges leaned over backward to give it to the Japanese although he conceded that Umemoto had a slight edge in the third round.

A little further south, at Civic Auditorium in Seattle, Tommy Umeda, Hawaiian Nisei featherweight, dropped a fight to Jackie Turner, veteran Vancouver fighter, although he gave the latter a rough going-over, staggering him twice.

The crowd didn't like this decision for it appeared like a clear win for Umeda. Dick Sharp, boxing critic of the Post-Intelligencer, thought Umeda had taken at least four of the scheduled six rounds. Bill Boni of the Times noted that the verdict was the most unpopular decision of the night.

The Vancouver JCCA basketball team which started their activities with a 44-29 win over the Chinese Varsity quintet, dropped two close games to the same team, 35-32, 56-49, recently. In the last loss, George Fukuyama with 15 points spearheaded the attack. Other scorers were Roddy Kitagawa 11, Ronnie Ikeda 11, Haruo Okano 10, Sam Mukai 2 and Shig Tabata.

From the west coast hockey scene in the Pacific Coast League, here's a story book finish. Ex-N.H.L. star, Babe Pratt, with his New Westminster Royals behind 6-3 with two minutes to go, yanked his goalie, and his team responded with three goals in 44 seconds to tie the dumbfounded Vancouver Canucks 6-6.

Here in Toronto, the Nisei Flyers, otherwise known as Arcade Grill, won the championship in the "B" group of the juvenile division in the Toronto Hockey League with a 3-2 win over Ossington Community Centre last week following their 2-0 victory in the opener of the best of three series.

Last year the boys were playing midget ranks and this year, stepped up a notch into the 17-and-under juvenile class. Keeping their team intact, they've shown a winning combination.

The Toronto Nisei Hockey League is tentatively planning an all-star entry in the Intermediate section of the T.H.L. King Clancy series which is a sort of round-robin series conducted around this time for teams around the city.

With spring training news appearing every day, here's one from El Centro, Calif. where Wally Yonamine is working out with the San Francisco Seals.

Manager Lefty O'Doul listed Yonamine as one of the most impressive rookies in camp. In the first game of the training camp season, he impressed by rapping out two clean singles. O'Doul observed, "Wally has a perfect swing, and great power".

Yonamine gave up certain stardom with the Yomiuri Giants of the Japanese Professional League in Tokyo to try out with the Seals.

Although reportedly already enroute to Japan, the Hawaii Nisei all-star team made up of ten of the best players in Honolulu, has been denied permission to play an 8-game schedule in Japan by the U. S. Amateur Athletic Union. The Nisei were scheduled to meet teams in Tokyo, Nagoya and Osaka, mostly from the universities.

And we would like to straighten out one point about the recently held Inter-City Badminton Tournament between Toronto and Montreal. The affair was sponsored by the Japanese Canadian Catholic Youth Organization in Montreal and the initials J.C.Y. as written in a previous report should have been J.C.C.Y. for credit should emphatically go to this group.
